

Princess Galyani Vadhana Award

Background

Her Royal Highness Somdej Phra Sri Nakharindra Boromraj Chonni (H.R.H. the Princess Mother), the mother of King Bhumibol Adulyadej, was known for her philanthropic work and established several projects to improve Thai people's lives in the remote regions of Thailand under the Princess Mother's Charitable Fund. After her passing on July 18th, 1995, Her Royal Highness Princess Galyani Vadhana Krom Luang Naradhiwas Rajanagarindra undertook The Compassion of the Princess Mother's Projects under the Princess Mother's Charitable Fund, Her Royal Highness Princess Galyani Vadhana Krom Luang Naradhiwas Rajanagarindra focused on providing educational assistance. HRH created programs and made personal visits to motivate teachers in the program to perform their work with passion and aspiration. After HRH The Princess Galyani Vadhana's passing on January 2th 2008, The Compassion of The Princess Mother's Project Committee established an outstanding teacher award, the "Princess Galyani Vadhana Award" to honor and continue HRH's commitment to help promote education in rural areas and to boost morale for teachers who work in risky remote regions whose performance deserved commendation and recognition.

Principle

The Compassion of the Princess Mother's Projects recruits teachers with outstanding performance criteria. The project also selects the teachers including the display of tenacity, diligence, sacrifice, and being a role model in teaching and enabling learning excellence amongst learners and the remote regions they serve. The award aimed to recognize the teaching staff who demonstrated him/herself as being “more than a teacher”.

Award Eligibility

The outstanding teachers who work in remote and vulnerable backcountry schools are from three departments. There are the offices of the Basic Education Commission (ONEC), the Border Patrol Police Headquarters (BPPH.), and the Department of Learning Encouragement (DLE.) department is eligible for three awards per each, a total of 9 awards per year.

"Princess Galyani Vadhana Award"

Main Prize 1. Award plaque

2. Certificate of Honor "Princess Galyani Vadhana Award"

3. Commemorative needles Her Royal Highness Princess Galyani Vadhana

Krom Luang Naradhiwas Rajanagarindra.

Operational Support Awards – The various awards would be sponsored by other organizations.

1. Prize money for the Prince teacher
2. Prize money for teaching and learning activities and school development
3. Student Teaching Materials
4. Teaching materials and supplies for students
5. Continuous development of the teacher

Procedure

The committee of the Princess Galyani Vadhana Award was appointed by the Chairman of the Compassion of The Princess Mother's Project. Determine the criteria for teacher recruitment to Princess Galyani Vadhana Award. (1) Notify the three target educational institutions to recruit teachers working in the wilderness and risky schools. (2) The target institutions select the remaining teachers and send the teachers' proposals to the committee for reviewing the documents. The committee makes an appointment for the teacher to present their work with supporting evidence. They would ask questions about the proposed and approve the assessment indicators. The eligible applicants must obtain 80 % of the result. The committee will take the empirical evaluation to examine the the teacher's document. They interview people in the community, student parents, teachers in educational institutions, administrators, and teacher's activities. (3) The committee analyzes by using Radar Chart techniques. They summarize the assessment results and select three teachers for each department, two remote wilderness teachers and one risky areas teacher. The award ceremony is usually scheduled on May 6th every year. Because it coincides with Her Royal Highness Princess Galyani Vadhana Krom Luang Naradhiwas Rajanagarindra's birthday.
